ART + ACTIVISM explores how artwork is used as a medium to promote social and political action and engagement. The artists goals are to confront social questions and address inequities and injustices, to spark dialogue and foster connections through the shared exploration of human experience within the urban landscape.

Dede Bandid is a multidisciplinary urban artist, who utilizes various mediums to communicate within the public arena. Nitzan Mintz is a visual poet who creates collages of words and materials. As partners in life and practice, they find inspiration in the vibrant pulse and constant flux of urban environments. Nitzan's text provides a visual dimension to language, deepening perception of her poems while mining a deep well of primal and fundamental human associations. Dede provides poignant messages related to the specific history of a site or format of an artwork.

Dede Bandid & Nitzan Mintz have exhibited internationally since 2011, both as solo artists and as collaborators. Their work has been included in many solo and group exhibitions in Israel, Europe, and the United States. They have been part of many solo and joint public work projects as well as a variety of special arts events. Awarded numerous residencies, Dede and Nitzan have been the subject of articles in countless publications. Their work can be found in many museums and in corporate and private collections.
